

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR SERGEANT RAY GOWERS SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Body Arrived Thursday Morning and Is Now At Home of His Parents—Calvin Smith Of Salt Lake City Will Deliver Address—Payson Band Will Lead Cortège.

The body of Sergeant N. Ray Gowers, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gowers, of this city arrived from France yesterday morning and now reposes in his old home in this city. Sergeant Gowers, fell mortally wounded in action during the world war and died soon after in the hospital in which he was taken.

He was among the first to leave Nephi in the late summer of 1917, and after a few months training at Camp Lewis, was sent over seas with the famous Wester division, the 91st.

Sergeant Gowers, was a splendid type of a young Utah citizen, clean cut and manly, a credit to his parents and to the city which gave him birth. He attended the Nephi High School from which institution he graduated with honor.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon from the Tabernacle to commence at 2 p. m. the funeral cortège to leave the home of the deceased at 1.30 p. m. Interment to take place in the Vine Bluff Cemetery.

The arrangements for the funeral are as follows.

Members of the Legion, Red Cross Society members, City and County Officials, Commercial Club Members, and Civilians are requested to be at the residence of A. J. Gowers, not later than 1.30 p. m. to escort the body to the Tabernacle.

Services at the Tabernacle will be under the direction of Bishop C. H. Grace of the North Ward. The opening prayer will be offered by Robert

Winn, the closing prayer by President T. D. Rees. Musical numbers will be a duet "Jesus Lover of my Soul" by Mrs. Ed. Carter and L. P. Anderson, Instrumental selection "Lead Kindly Light" by the Goldsbrough Sisters. Vocal Solo, "A Perfect Day" by Mrs. Mabel Lunt, Vocal Solo, by Miss Arv. Ella Lunt, "The Parting of a Heart" Closing number by the Congregation, "The Star Spangled Banner" led by L. P. Anderson. Dedication of the grave by Jas. Garrett Jr. Speakers Calvin Smith, of Salt Lake City, late chaplain of the 91st Division. Jas. W. Paxman, Jas. H. Ockey, representing the Legion, L. A. Bailey Sr, and closing remarks by Bishop Grace.

Order of procession from Tabernacle to Vine Bluff Cemetery, under the direction of Lieutenant Orton Durham, and Lieutenant Spencer Forrest.

Payson Military Band.
Escort, Service Men.
Coffin and Pall Bearers.
Relatives and Mourners.
Red Cross Members.
City and County Officials.
Commercial Club Members.
Civilians.

The arrangements for Pall Bearers, Firing Squad and other details will be the same as were observed at the funeral of Lieutenant L. H. Evans.

All Citizens who have cars which will not be filled will confer a favor by conveying those who wish to go to the cemetery.