

ZINA E. GRAY DIES IN RUTH, NEV.

After a lingering illness Mrs. Zina E. Gray passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jennie Cook, of Ruth, Nevada, September 19.

The body was brought to Beaver for burial and funeral services were held in the East Ward Chapel Monday morning at 10:30. The services were solemnized as follows:

Song, ladies quartette, "Wanted on the Other Side." Prayer, Elder Richard Lund." Solo, Mrs. Hattie Ashworth, "Far Away." Speaker, Elder George Pafce. Solo, Mrs. Thelma Barton, "I Know That My Redeemer Lives." Speaker, Elder J. F. Tolton. Song, ladies quartette, "Sometime, Somewhere."

The benediction was offered by Bro. Wm. Morgan after which the remains were taken to the Mountain-view cemetery.

The grave was dedicated by Bro. C. F. Harris. The floral offerings were many and beautiful.

Zina E. Gray was born March 23, 1857, at Springville, Utah, daughter of B. B. and L. B. Messinger. The family moved to Beaver in 1869. She was married to Alphonso M. Skinner July 24, 1873. One child was born to this union and the father passed away a few years later. She married J. B. Gray July 25, 1891 and one daughter was born to them. They left Beaver 18 years ago and moved to Delta where she was again left alone by the death of her husband.

She was a competent nurse in that community for many years and gave her services willingly to all who needed them.

She is survived by two children, Mr. Chester Skinner of Monrovia, Calif., and Mrs. Jennie Cook of Ruth, Nevada; eight grandchildren, one great grandchild, and a sister, Mrs. Hattie Bohn, of Beaver.

Those attending the funeral from out of town were: Mrs. D. A. Lamoreaux, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lund, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lamoreaux, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Lund, Mrs. Hattie Wilcox, all of Paragonah.
