

BIG BLACKHAWK ENCAMPMENT ON AUGUST 13 TO 16

Organization To Be Perfected
In Near Future; Plan An Outstanding Celebration

The annual Black Hawk encampment will be held in Nephi on August 13, 14, 15, and 16, according to Captain P. L. Jones of the local post of the Sons and Daughters of Utah Pioneers and Indian War veterans. The selecting of the date was made Wednesday so that all other encampments in Central and Southern Utah would not conflict with the big affair.

State Commander J. B. Hughes was in Nephi this week and discussed the dates with Mayor P. B. Cowan and Captain Jones, and after considering the various dates available, it was finally decided that August 13, 14, 15 and 16 is the best for all concerned.

According to Dr. Jones the various committees to handle the big encampment will be selected in the very near future and the work of putting over this gigantic affair will get underway.

A telegram was received Wednesday from Colburn and Sorenson one of the largest rodeo outfits in Southeastern Idaho, wanting to bring their entertainers to the blackhawk celebration. As soon as the various committees are selected, matters of this nature will be taken care of according to Dr. Jones.
